

Renewable Energy Property Tax Credit Backlog

The Renewable Energy Property Tax Credit program has an annual funding of $400,000, but each year applications are submitted that exceed that annual limit. Therefore, there is a large backlog of applications waiting to receive these tax credits for Solar & Geothermal devices, and based on the annual limit on funding, applicants may have to wait several years before they receive their credit.